2003 Stony Brook Alumni Board of Directors New Board Member Nominees

Dora Maria Abreu

BS Stony Brook 1990
MS Stony Brook 1991

Dora Abreu is currently a Computer Systems Manager for the New York City Housing Authority. In addition to her field expertise, her greatest contributions as a Stony Brook alum have been on and off campus. She was model student and model employee here at Stony Brook where she left strong, positive and professional relationships with all that worked with her.

Dora Abreu created the Rafaela Luna Abreu Memorial Scholarship in honor of her mother who passed away from breast cancer. This scholarship is awarded to a student in the sciences that has demonstrated outstanding academic accomplishments and has served others in the Latino community much like her mother did.

Dr. Frank Chow

1975 BS Chemistry- Stony Brook
1980 Ph.D. Analytical Chemistry-Buffalo

A chemist by trade, he is currently a partner and Vice President of a major pharmaceutical consulting firm, with annual revenue of over $17 million. He has, or had, major investments in the retail, restaurant, and real estate industries. With his respect and affiliation with the Asian community he will help extend our network and draw Asian alumni from the 70's and early 80's. He will also enhance the fund raising efforts of the board with pharmaceutical, restaurant and related industries.

Patrick Jenkins

B.S. Stony Brook 1990

Upon graduation, Patrick soon joined the University's staff as a Residence Hall Director. While an RHD, Patrick advised the African American Student's Organization and the NAACP. He also helped develop the CARE peer education group, dedicated to addressing substance use and abuse by students.

In 1995, he accepted a position with the New York City Board of Education as a Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist until accepting a position with New York City Comptroller, Alan G. Hevesi as his Executive Assistant. After helping elect Gregory W. Meeks to Congress, Patrick accepted a position as his Executive Assistant and was recently named District Director.

Preeti Priya

1996 BA Arts & Sciences – Stony Brook
2000 JD Touro College of Law

Prior to her passing the bar, Ms. Priya was a law clerk with the Suffolk County District Attorney's office. She has also been a legal intern at Symbol Technologies. Presently she is Associate Counsel with Westminster USA, Ltd negotiating contracts and ensuring compliance with the New York State Department of Insurance. She is a member of the New York State Bar Assn., the New York County Lawyers' Assn., and the South Asian Bar Assn.

Joanne Schieffer

B.A. Stony Brook 1979

After graduation Joanne went to work on Wall Street where she became a Vice President for Salomon Brothers. After 10 years at Salomon, , Joanne continued her career at Schroders, a major UK financial services firm.

Joanne left Wall Street in 1997. Since then she has dedicated herself to community and school activities. As a proud alumna, she has become increasingly involved with Stony Brook University. Just recently she was an integral part of the Wolfstock Homecoming committee where she served as co-coordinator for the food tent.
